Assignment Files

An assessment file and a marking scheme will be made available to you. In the assessment file, you will find details of the works you must submit to your tutor for marking. There are two aspects of the assessment of this course; the tutor marked and the written examination. The marks you obtain in these two areas will make up your final marks. The assignment must be submitted to your tutor for formal assessment in accordance with the deadline stated in the presentation schedule and the Assignment file. The work you submit to your tutor for assessment will count for 30% of your total score.

Self Assessment Exercises (SAEs)

Each unit contains a number of self-tests. These self-test questions on the sections you have just covered are meant to help to evaluate your progress and to reinforce your understanding of the materials. Alongside with your tutor-marked assignments, these exercises will assist you in achieving the stated learning objectives of the individuals units and of the course.

Tutor-Marked Assignment (TMAs)

You will have to submit a specified number of Tutor Marked Assignments (TMAs). Every unit in this course has a tutor marked assignment. You will be assessed on four of them but the best three performances from the (TMAs) will be used for 30% grading. When you have completed each assignment, send it together with a Tutor Marked Assignment form, to your tutor. Make sure each assignment reaches your tutor on or before the deadline for submissions. If for any reason, you cannot complete your work on time, contact your tutor for a discussion on the possibility of an extension. Extension will not be granted after the due date unless under exceptional circumstances.

Final Examination and Grading

The final examination will be a text of three hours. All areas of the course will be examined. Find time to read the unit all over before your examination. The final examination will attract 70% of the total course grade. The examination will consist of questions, which reflects the kinds of self assessment exercises and tutor marked assignment you have previously encountered. And all aspects of the course will be assessed. You should use the time between completing the last unit, and taking the examination to revise the entire course.

Course Marking Scheme

The following table lays out how the actual course mark allocation is broken down.

How to Get the Most from this Course

In distance learning, the study units replace the university lecture. This is one of the great advantages of distance learning; you can read and work through specially designed study materials at your own pace, and at a time and place that suits you best. Think of it as reading the lecture instead of listening to the lecturer. In the same way a lecturer might give you some reading to do, the study units tell you where to read, and which are your text materials or set books. You are provided exercises to do at appropriate points, just as a lecturer might give you an in-class exercise. Each of the study units follows a common format. The first item is an introduction to the subject matter of the unit, and how a particular unit is integrated with the other units and the course as a whole. Next to this is a set of learning objectives. These objectives let you know what you should be able to do by the time you have completed the unit. These learning objectives are meant to guide your study. The moment a unit is finished, you must go back and check whether you have achieved the objectives. If this is made a habit, then you will significantly improve your chances of passing the course. This will usually be either from your set books or from a Reading section. The following is a practical strategy for working through the course. If you run into any trouble, telephone your tutor. Remember that tutor's job is to help you. When you need assistance, do not hesitate to call and ask your tutor to provide it.

1.0 Read this Course Guide thoroughly, it is your first assignment

- 2.0 Organize a Study Schedule. Design a 'Course Overview' to guide you through the Course. Note the time you are expected to spend on each unit and how the Assignment relate to the units. Whatever method you choose to use, you should decide on and write in your own dates and schedule of work for each unit.
- 3.0 Once you have created your own study schedule, do everything to stay faithful to it. The major reason why students fail is that they get behind with their course work if you get into difficulties with your schedule, please, let your tutor know before it is too late to help.
- 4.0 Turn to Unit I, and read the introduction and the objectives for the unit.
- 5.0 Assemble the study materials. You will need your set books and the unit you are studying at any point in time. As you work through the unit, you will know what sources to consult for further information.
- 6.0 Keep in touch with your centre. Up-to-date course information will be continuously available there.
- 7.0 Well before the relevant due dates (about 4 weeks before due dates), keep in mind that you will learn a lot by doing the assignment carefully. They have been designed to help you meet the objectives of the course and, therefore, will help you pass the examination. Submit all assignments not later than due date.
- 8.0 Review the objectives for each study unit to confirm that you have achieved them. If you feel unsure about any of the objectives, review the study materials or consult your tutor.
- 9.0 When you are confident that you have achieved a unit's objectives, you can start on the next unit. Proceed unit by unit through the course and try to pace your stuffy so that you keep yourself on schedule.
- 10.0 When you have submitted an assignment to your tutor for marking, do not wait for its return before starting on the next unit. Keep to your schedule. When the assignment is returned, pay particular attention to your tutor's comments, both on the tutor-marked assignment form and also the written comments on the ordinary assignments.
- 11.0 After completing the last unit, review the course and prepare yourself for the final examination. Check that you have achieved the unit objective (listed at the beginning of each unit) and the course objectives (listed in the Course Guide)

Facilitators/Tutors and Tutorials

Information relating to the tutorials will be provided at the appropriate time. Your tutor will mark and comment on your assignments, keep a close watch on your progress and on any difficulties you might encounter and provide assistance to you during the course. You must take your tutor-marked assignments to the study centre well before the due date (at least two working days are required). They will be marked by your tutor and returned to you as soon as possible.

Do not hesitate to contact your tutor if you need help. Contact your tutor if:

- 3 You do not understand any part of the study units or the assigned reading
- 4 You have difficult with the exercise
- You have a question or problems with an assignment or with your tutor's comments on an assignment or with the grading of an assignment.

You should try your best to attend the tutorials. This is the only chance to have face-to-face contact with your tutor and ask questions which are answered instantly. You can raise any problem encountered in the course of your study. To gain the maximum benefit from course tutorials, prepare a question list before attending them. You will learn a lot from participating in discussion actively.

Conclusion

1.0 INTRODUCTION

My dear student, Arabic Language is one of the leading languages in the world. It is spoken by almost 200 million Arabs of the Middle East and many Muslims of the world. It is a language spoken at interactive sessions at international forums like the African Unity, United nation, OPEC and others.

Like many other languages, the parts of Speech of Arabic are classified into noun, verb and particle called T حُرف and اسْم, فعل respectively. This Unit introduces you to some of these features of the language which you require in order to attain proficiency in it. They are put across to you and treated in simple and clear style. So come along with on board.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this Unit, you should be able to:

- identify the different types of noun in Arabic language
- differentiate between the Masculine and feminine genders in given Arabic names.
- identify the definite and indefinite articles in Arabic language
- discuss the significance of the sun and the moon letters.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

(Noun) ألإسم 3.1

A noun in Arabic grammar is the name of people, animals, places or things.

For example:

Person:	Adam	آدَم
Animal:	lion,	أسك
Place:	Ibadan	إِبَادَن
Thing:	pen	قُلْم

3.1.1 Types of Nouns

In Arabic grammar, names are classified as proper, common and abstract nouns.

The Proper Nouns

If a noun, 'ismu السُّمُ names a particular person, place or thing, then in Arabic you should know that we call such a noun a proper noun. For example:

Adam	آدَمُ
Ibrahim	ٳؠ۠ۯؘٵۿؚۑؠؙ
Muhammad	مُحَمَّدُ
Friday	ٱلْجُمْعَة
Sunday	الأحدُ
Kano	كَانُو
Ibadan	ٳۘڹؘٵۮؘڹ
Lagos	لأجُوسْ

3.1.2 Common Nouns

Common nouns on the other hands are names of things in general. This means that common nouns in Arabic Language are names of things as the following examples illustrate.

Table	مَقْعَدُ
Chair	ػؙۯۨڛۑؙؖ
Boy	وَلَدُّ
Girl	ېنت
Man	رَجُلُ
Woman	امْرَأَةُ
Dog	كُلْب
Bread	خُبْنُ
Knife	سِكِّينُ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

Write five Arabic proper nouns and five Arabic common nouns.

(Abstract Nouns) أَسْمَاءُ الْمَعَانِي

If a noun names anything which we can only imagine and think about, but we cannot see or touch, whether it is countable or uncountable, such a noun is called abstract noun. For examples

Joy	فَرَحُ
Happiness	سُرُورُ
Difficulty	غَمُّ
Love	حُبُّ
Justice	عَدْلُ
Advice	نَصِيحَةُ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

Define Arabic abstract noun and mention five of them.

3.2 ) Definite and Indefinite Articles ( أَذَاهُ التَّعْرِيفِ وَالتَّنكِيرِ

Like many other languages, a noun can be in definite and indefinite form in the Arabic language. Al' 'U' 'the' is the definite article. It is used for some cases, genders, and numbers and written as prefix for the noun to be defined.

تنوین (Nunation) is the indefinite article denoting 'a' or 'an'.

The noun that has any of them is in the indefinite case in Arabic.

Nunation consists of three kinds; these are:

فَتُحَتَّان	Fat-ħatān	=
ضمَّتَان	Dammatān	28
كَسْرَتَان	Kasratān

The table below illustrates both articles clearly

Definite		Indefinite
al-Ma'arifatu	الممعرفة	an –nakratu	ٱلثَّكْرَةُ
The Book	الْكِتَابُ	A book	كِتَابٌ
The Pen	الْقَلْمُ	A pen	قَلْمٌ
The exercise book	الْدَفْتَرُ	An exercise book	دَقْثَرُ ً
The boy	الْوَلْدُ	A boy	وَلَّدُ
The girl	الْبِنْتُ	A girl	ېنت
The table	الْمَقْعَدُ	A table	مَوْعَدُ
The house	الْبَيْتُ	A house	بَيْتُ
The man	الرَّجُلُ	A man	رَجُلٌ
The woman	الامْرَأَةُ	A woman	امْرَأَةُ
The University	الْجَامِعَةُ	A University,	جَامِعَة

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 3

What are the Arabic definite and indefinite articles? Expatiate on them with examples.

Meanwhile, while discussing definite article أل , it is pertinent to discuss the related hamzatu 'l-waşl and hamzatu 'l-qat'i. The hamzat of definite article is hamzat-al-waşl, so that the 'a' or 'an' must be elided if preceded by any word e.g. the boy and the girl . الْوَلَٰذُ وَ الْبِئْتُ You will notice that عمل of bintu are joined together because the hamzat has been elided from pronunciation.

The pronunciation of sun and moon letters when it is definite is very important my dear students. That is why we need to introduce these letters to you. There are twenty Arabic letters (consonants). These letters are divided into two. Fourteen of them are sun letters while the remaining fourteen are moon letters.

These are the Sun Letters

The crown	ت – اَلْتَاجُ
The cloth	ث – الثوْبُ
The cock	د ــ الدِّيكُ
The wolf	ذ — الدِّنْبُ
The man	ر – اَلرَّجُلُ
The visitor	ز – الزَّائِرُ
The chalk board	س – السَّبُّورَةُ
The sun	ش — الْشَّمْسُ
The box	ص - الصُّنْدُوقُ
The weak	ض – الضَّعِيفُ
The chalk	ط – الطَّبْشُورُ
The shade	ظ ــ الظِّلُّ
The night	ل — اللَّيلُ
The light	ن - اَلنُّورُ

When the noun that 'J' (the) is prefixed with one of the above sun letters, the 'L' 'J' of the definite article will be assimilated to the sun letter which is written with the shadda 'J'. The 'J' of the article losing its sukūn vowel 'e.g.

ar-rajul	الرَّجُل	Instead of al-rajul
at-tayru	الطئير	Instead of al-tayru.

The remaining fourteen letters are Moon letters and they are pronounced with 'J'. For example

r	al-walad al-bint.	الُّولَدُ الْبِنْتُ
The lion The door The university The father in lay The garden The eye The cave The elephant The pen The dog The table		أ - الأسدَ ب - الْبَابُ ج - الْجَامِعَةُ ح - الْحَمْوُ خ - الْحَدِيقَةُ ع - الْعَينُ غ - الْعَارُ ف - الْقِيلُ ق - الْقَلْمُ لك - الْكَلْبُ
The boy The guidance		و — اَلُوَلَٰدُ هـ — اَلْهِدَايَةُ

This rule only occurs in definite article so far indefinite article does not take  $\bigcup al$ , and then the rule is not applicable to it.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 4

Write out the sun letters from the Arabic consonants

3.3 الْجِنْس (Gender)

In Arabic, most nouns have a property by which sex is distinguished. This property is called gender. There are two genders in Arabic grammar.

These are: Masculine الْمُذَكَّرُ and Feminine الْمُؤَنَّثُ

There is no neuter in Arabic language as it is found in other languages.

The feminine al-Mu'annath الْمُؤَنَّث is formed from the masculine by suffixing taau marbuutat "ه"

Let us illustrate these two genders with a table that will make it clear to you.

Feminine	ٱلْمُوَلَّتُ	Masculine	ٱلْمُدُكَّرُ
The poor woman	الْفَقِيرَةُ	The poor man	ٱلْفَقِيرُ
The female	المَدْرَسَةُ	The male teacher	ٱلْمَدْرَسُ
A female writer	كَاتِبَةُ	The male wrier	كَاتِبٌ
A female student	طَالِبَةُ	A Male student	طالِبٌ
The female cook	الطَّبَاخَةُ	The male cook	الطَّبَاخُ

Look at the above examples, you will see that the feminine is derived from masculine with the suffix "5" and there is a change in the penultimate letters vowels from 'u' to 'a' e.g.

Observation: You are aware that in any rule there is an exception, there are some feminine words which have no masculine form e.g.

A city مُدِينَةٌ A law Court

And also there are some words without "Ö" but they are feminine in nature e.g.

Name of female personمُرْيَمٌName of female personزُنْيُنْبُMotherأُمُّAn old womanعَجُونٌ

Finally, dear students, occasionally, it is very rare to find "ö" in words which are masculine e.g.

A successor خَلِيفَةٌ Masculine personal name

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 5

Name 5 nouns that are Masculine when written but feminine in nature.

4.0 CONCLUSION

(ألإسْتِنْتَاجُ)

Nouns in Arabic grammar consist of names of persons, places or things. They are either, proper, common or abstract. Some nouns become definite by having the definite article الله as suffixes or indefinite by having sign of being indefinite called tanwin. The definite article الله either قَصَرِيَّة or قَصَرِيَّة . Some Arabic nouns are also either in proper masculine or feminine in gender or in words.

5.0 SUMMARY (خُلاصَة)

In this unit, we have treated the types of noun in Arabic, the articles and the related rules of sun and moon letters with definite article. Genders that are masculine and feminine have also been dealt with. You are also introduced to the feminine sign as it is derived from masculine nouns. Other feminine nouns that are exempted are also mentioned.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

- 1. Give five Arabic proper, common and abstract nouns.
- 2. Write ten Arabic definite nouns of which five of them are sun letters and another five of moon letters.
- 3. Write ten Arabic nouns of which five in them are masculine and another five feminine.

3.1 The Singular Form of the Arabic Nouns

Singular, al-Mufrad الْمُفْرَد in Arabic is any word that indicates a single person, animal, place or thing. This singular can be of any gender, whether masculine, مُذَكَّر or feminine مُذَكَّر . The singular of any noun does not change its definite status, مَعْرفة or indefinite, articles. Before we proceed, we want you to know that when the three vowel marks are written double at the end of a noun, they represent the three case endings, nominative, accusative and genitive. These are the three doubled vowels

فَتْحَتّان كَسْرَتّان ضَمَّتّان

3.1.1 Nominative Singular Nouns

The singular nouns of Arabic are usually mentioned in the nominative case taking ضَمَتَان as suffixes. The table below illustrates this clearly.

The singular	ٱلْمُقْرَدُ
A book	كِتَابٌ
A pen	قَلْمٌ
An exercise book	ۮ ؘڨ ٛڗٞڒؙ
A chair	ػ۫ۯ۠ڛۑۜٞ
A bag	ِ فَيِيَةً مَا يَا يُعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَ
A boy	وَلَدُ
A man	رَجُلٌ
A table	مُو ع دُ مُوعدُ
A mosque	مَسْجِدٌ
A school	مَدْر َسَةُ

The double dammahs in all the aforementioned examples are indefinite articles. If al, b that is, the definite articles' sign prefixes any of these nouns then the vowel will change from double to single. Let us use the same words as examples.

ر و د م ر و

The Singular	ألمقرد
The Book	الْكِتَابُ
The pen	ٱلْقَلْمُ
The exercise book	ٱلْدَفْتَرُ
The chair	ٱلْكُرْسِيُّ
The bag	الْحَقِيبَةُ
The boy	ٱلْوَلْدُ
The man	الرَّجُلُ

The chair	ٱلْمُقْعَدُ
The mosque	الْمَسْجِدُ
The school	الْمَدْرَ سَة

3.1.2 Accusative Singular Nouns

Sometimes Singular nouns are said to be in the accusative case. فَتُحَتَّان will then be on it when it is indefinite but only one فَتُحَةُ vowel when it is definite.

Take the following as examples.

The Singular	ٱلْمُقْرَدُ
The house	ٱلْبَيْتَ
A refrigerator	الثَّلاَجَة
The airport	الممطار
A bird	طيْرا
The poor man	الْفَقِير
The elephant	الْفِيل
A paper	وَرَقَةٌ
A moon	قُمَرًا
The padlock	القَوْلُة عَلَيْهُ الْمُعَلِّمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ الْمُعَلِّمُ
A star	كَوْكَبًا

Both definite and indefinite articles are used together in the above examples.

3.1.3 Genitive of Singular nouns

The last of doubled vowels which is known as کَسْرُتَان is used for nouns at the genitive case. But, the single کَسْرُة vowel is used when it is definite like we have said earlier. See the table below

The Singular	ٱلْمُقْرَدُ
A box	صئندوق
The mountain	الجَبلِ
A coffee	قَحْوَةٍ
The tea	ٱڵۺٵۑ
A cloth	ثُوْبٍ
The heart	ٱلْقَلْب ِ
The earth	اَلأر ْض
The minister	ٱڵۅؘڔؘۑڔ
A bride	عَرُوس
A road	طريق

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

Mention the three single and double vowels that can be used for Arabic singular nominative, accusative and genitive nouns.

الْمُتَنَّى Dual Form Nouns

Arabic is unlike some other languages that the plural forms begin from two units upwards, but Arabic has dual form which is called al-Muthana, الْمُثَنَّى This is any noun that indicates two persons, places or things. The rule of identification will be explained in each cases.

3.2.1 Dual Nominative Case

In this case, the singular noun will be suffixed by alif and  $n\bar{u}n$ . The alif will elongate the last letter that had changed from خَصَنَّان or خَصَنَّان. For example the Singular of a book at the nominative case is ان Adding ان to it will change it and it will become کتاب You will notice that alif elongates the 'bau' while nun ن is given Kasrah, let us see other examples.

The Dual	ٱلْمُثَنَّى
Two schools	مَدْرَسَتَان
The two men	الرَجُلان
The two pen	ٱلْقَلْمَان
Two girls	بِنْتَان
Two pillows	وسكادَتَان
The two countries	ٱلْبَلْدَان
Two teachers	ٱلْمُدَرِّسَان
Two students	طَالِبَان
The two professors	الأسْتَادَان

There is no difference of vowels whether it is definite or indefinite as you can see in the  $\dot{\upsilon}$  suffixes of those nouns mentioned above.

3.2.2 Dual Accusative and Genitive Cases

The accusative and genitive cases of dual nouns in the Arabic language take the same form. The structure of a sentence will give you the understanding of which case a particular noun belongs to. There is no problem about that; you will be acquainted with all these very soon.

As you have been told earlier, alif and  $n\bar{u}n$  suffix the singular noun at the nominative case; but here it is  $y\bar{a}u$  and nun  $\dot{\tilde{u}}u$ .  $Y\bar{a}u$  here is diphthong and not elongation, the  $n\bar{u}n$   $\dot{u}$  will also take kasrah like that of the nominative. The below examples give clarity of this statement.

The Dual Two schools (Ac c& Gen) الرَجُلَبْن The two men (Acc & Gen) الْقَلْمَبْن The two pen (Acc & Gen) بنثثن Two girls (Acc & Gen) ٱلُّو َلْدَيْن The two boys (Acc & Gen) و سادتين Two pillows (Acc & Gen) ٱلْنَلْدَبْن The two countries (Acc & Gen) مُٰدَر ۗسَبْرن Two teachers (Acc & Gen) طالِيَبْن Two students (Acc & Gen) The two professors (Acc & Gen)

The accusative and genitive in dual nouns are the same in pattern but different in meaning in any Arabic given sentence.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

How will you vocalize nun,  $\dot{\upsilon}$  of dual pattern

4.0 CONCLUSION

(ألإسْتِتْتَاجُ)

In Arabic, Nouns vary from one case to the other, both at the singular and dual forms. The last letter of Nouns sometimes has single or double dammah and described as being in the nominative case; or single or double fathah in which case they are said to be in the accusative cases. They may also take single or double kasrah in which case they are said to be in the genitive case. Single vowels are used for the definite articles, while the double vowels are used for indefinite articles. Dual nouns are introduced by  $\dot{\upsilon}$  suffixes while the accusative and genitive case of dual changes it to  $\dot{\iota}\dot{\upsilon}$ . In English the alif of the former will be regarded as elongation while the  $v\bar{a}u$  of the latter is diphthong.

(خُلاصَةٌ) 5.0 SUMMARY

This Unit discusses various features of both the singular and the dual forms of nouns in the Arabic language. It explains characteristics of the he singular and dual nouns when they re in the nominative, accusative and genitive cases. The functions of single vowels as tool for definite article and those of double vowels as tools for indefinite article are highlighted. The roles of the suffixes again or ayn are explained. Copious examples are provided to explain the rules; while self assessment exercises are given learners for self examination.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the study of the Arabic plurals of nouns. In this Unit you will be introduced to the various plurals in Arabic and their uses in oral and written expression. It is important to know the plurals in Arabic which is called and which point to people, things, animals or places that are more than two. Further more, this is unlike other languages where the plural begins from two nouns. It may also be interesting to let you know from the unset that the plural in Arabic are classified into Sound Plurals and Broken Plurals. The sound plurals could also be either the sound masculine plural or the sound feminine plural. These are the various divisions of Arabic plurals you will come across in this Unit; thus come on board and let us discuss them one by one.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- give account of kinds of plurals in Arabic language
- identify the sound masculine plurals, the sound feminine plurals and the broken plurals

• explain the rules that govern the Arabic plurals.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

(The Sound Masculine Plural) جَمْعُ الْمُذَكَّرِ السَّالِم

As you have been told during our discussion in the introduction to this Unit, there are different kinds of plurals in the Arabic tongue. The first one is the sound Masculine plural, جَمْعُ الْمُذَكَّرِ السَّالِمِ This is a plural whose pattern of singular never changes or be replaced. Rather. It is suffixed with فون and نُون or أُون The noun must be given fat-hah, فرق e.g. Muslimūna or Muslimīna مُسْرِلْمِينَ, the same meaning. This is plural form of Muslim مُسْرِلْمِ a male Muslim. We shall treat this very well as we are going to another content where examples will be given to make the rules clear.

3.1.1 The Nominative Case of the Sound Masculine Plural

The nominative case of the above plural will be suffixed by غُون and غُون and عُون. The وَاللهِ will elongate the preceding consonant which is the last letter of the singular noun. The ن is expected to take fat-hat فَتُحَةُ vowel.

We hereby present a table to you to illustrate this clearer.

Plurals of the Sound Masculine Singular in the nominative cases

Teachers	مُدَرِّسُونَ	A Teacher	مُدَرِّسُ
The peasants	ٱلْفَلاَحُونَ	The peasant	ٱلْفَلاَّحُ
Sound men	سَالِمُونَ	A Sound Man	سَالِمٌ
The believers	اَلْمُؤْمِنُونَ	The believer	اَلْمُؤ ْمِنُ
The citizens	الْمُوَ اطِنُونَ	The citizen	الْمُوَاطِنُ
Workers	مُورَظَفُونَ	A worker	مُوَظَّفُ
The Engineers	الله مُ هَنْدِسُونَ	The engineer	ٱلۡمُهَنۡدِسُ
The Travellers	ٱلْمُسَافِرُونَ	The traveler	ٱلْمُس َافِرُ
Listeners	مُسْتَمِعُونَ	A Listener	مُسْتَمِعُ
Unbelievers	گافِرُونَ	An Unbeliever	گافِر ٞ

Have you seen how we convert the singular to plural? The above examples are sound plurals and are for masculine gender in nominative case.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

Discuss the rules of converting singular of sound masculine gender of Arabic nouns to plurals in the nominative case.

3.1.2 The Accusative and Genitive Cases of the Sound Masculine Plurals

The accusative and genitive cases of the sound masculine plurals share the same suffix. It is the context in which the words are used in the sentence that will determine whether the plural noun is in accusative or genitive case. The plurals are suffixed with غُونُ. Yau and nun, that is, غُونُ the  $y\bar{a}u$  is elongating the last letter of the singular noun which must be given kasrah, while غُون  $n\bar{u}n$  still remains unchanged with fat-hah. For instance, the accusative and genitive singular noun of Muslim is مُسْرُلُمًا and مُسْرُلُمًا nusliman and nuslimin respectively. Let us now change the nominative examples to accusative and then genitive.

The Plural Nouns in the Accusative Case

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 3

Discuss the Accusative and Genitive Cases of the Arabic Sound Masculine Plurals. Illustrate your answer with two examples.

3.2 The Sound Feminine Plural

The sound feminine plural form is quite different from the masculine. You have known in the previous Unit that if a masculine gender noun is a male Muslim, then the feminine gender will be مُسدُّلِم a male Muslim, then the feminine gender will be مُسدُّل , Muslimatun, a female Muslim, a letter هُ, known as tau al-marbutah (closed tau), is expected to be a suffix to the last letter of masculine singular noun e.g. feminine مُسْلِّمَة masculine مُسْلِّمَة . The plural form of the sound feminine noun is suffixed with الله alif and tau. The tau marbutah will be changed to open tau e.g. Singular مُسْلِمَةٌ Plural مُسْلِمَاتٌ

3.2.1 The Nominative Case of the Sound Feminine Plural

As we have said earlier the alif and tau 'i' will be at the suffix of any feminine singular noun to form a sound feminine plural. At the nominative case, feminine plural shares the same feature with singular nouns by possessing both single and double vowels as the case may be e.g.

Female مُسْلِمَات The Female Muslims الْمُسْلِمَات

The table below will illustrate this clearer.

Nominative

	The Sound Feminin Plural جَمعُ الْمُدُكَّرِ السَّالِمِ		Singular المُفرَدٌ
Female Teachers	مُدَرِّسَاتٌ	A female teacher	مُدَرِّسَةٌ
The ladies	السَّيِّدَاتُ	The lady	ٱڵڛۘۘۘؠۜٞۮؘڎؙ
The female writer	ٱلْكَاتِبَاتُ	The female writer	ٱلْكَاتِبَةُ
Sound women	سَالِمَاتٌ	A sound woman	سَالِمَةُ
Female pupils	تِلْمِيدًاتٌ	A female pupil	تِلْمِيدَةُ

Accusative and genitive of the sound feminine plural share the same vowels both at definite and indefinite levels. We shall give example of both together once you have learnt the nominative, accusative and genitive of singular nouns in the previous lessons.

3.2.2 Accusative and Genitive of the Sound Feminine Plural

Like you have been told that they share the same characteristics, the 'u' or 'un' of nominative changes to 'i' or in.

مُسْلِمَاتِ الْمُسْلِمَاتِ

See the table below as we use the same examples above to show both accusative and genitive cases of the sound feminine plural

Accusative

Accusative
	The Sound Fe Plural جَمْع المُؤنَّث السَّالِم	minine Singular المُقْرَدُ
Female Teachers		مُدَرِّسَةً مُدَرِّسَاتٍ
The ladies		السَّيِّدَة السَّيِّدَاتِ
The female writer		الْكَاتِبَة الْكَاتِبَاتِ
Sound women		سَالِمَة سَالِمَاتٍ
Female pupils		تِلْمِيدَةً تِلْمِيدَاتٍ

Genitive

Genitive
	The sound Feminine Plural جَمْع المُؤَنَّث السَّالِم	Singular المُقْرَدُ
Female Teachers	مُدَرِّسَاتٍ	مُدَرِّسَةٍ
The ladies	السَّيِّدَاتِ	ٱڶڛۜٙؾؚۜۮؘڎؚ
The female writer	الْكَاتِبَاتِ	الكاتبة
Sound women	سَالِمَاتِ	سَالِمَةٍ
Female pupils	تِلْمِيدَاتٍ عَلَيْ عَلَيْهِ	تِلْمِيدَةٍ

You will notice that single vowel kasrah and double vowel kasratan are both used for accusative and genitive cases of the plural.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 4

Discuss the rules of converting singular of Arabic sound feminine nouns to plurals in the nominative case. Illustrate your answer with examples.

3.3 جَمْعُ تَكْسِير (The Broken Plurals)

The broken plural is one whose pattern of singular changes with an alternation, addition or removal of part of alphabets. This plural must be learnt and memorized by consulting the Arabic dictionary. Some common measures of jam'u al-taksir are.

Pens	أقلامٌ	أفعال
Eyes	أعْيُنُ	أفعُل
Men	رجًال	فِعَال
Books	ڬ ؘٛؾڹؙ	فُعُل
Houses	بُيوتٌ	فُعُول فُعُول

There are a lot of forms of measures for this plural produced by Arabic grammarians. I advice you to read the References/Further Reading suggested to you especially the dictionary. These plurals share the same things in common with singular nouns in the three cases i. e. the nominative, accusative and genitive.

Let us have more examples of this plural form.

المَرْفُوع 3.1.1 Nominative

Plural		Singular
Stars	گ وَاکِبُ	كَوْكَب
Sciences	عُلُومٌ	عِلْم
Skins	جُلُودٌ	چلْد
Professors	أِسَاتِدَةُ	أستاذ
The students	الطُّلابُ	الطّالب
The writers	الِكَتابُ	الكاتِب
The souls	النُّقُوسُ	النَّفْس
Flags	أعْلامٌ	عَلْم
Loaves	ٲۯ۠ۼؚڣٙڎ	رَ غيفَة
Occupations	أعْمَالٌ	عَمَل

The above examples are nominative case for broken plurals.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 5

Define Arabic broken plurals. Mention five of its measures with examples.

3.3.2 Accusative ألمَنْصُوب

As we have said earlier, the plurals share the same things in common with singular nouns in the three cases i. e. the nominative, accusative and genitive. Let us illustrate the accusative case with the following examples.

Men	رحالا	رَحُلا
141011	2

Rivers	بحارًا	بَحْرًا
Winds	ریَاحا	ریْحًا
Mountains	جِبَالا	حبلا
Eyes	أعْيُنًا	عَيْنًا
Hearts	فُلُوبًا	قُلْبًا
Swords	سُيُوفًا	سَيْقًا
Roads	طر ْقَا	طريقا
Cities	مَدْتًا	مَدِينَة
House	بيُوتًا	بَيْثًا

3.3.3 Genitive

The genitive of broken plurals also follows the genitive singular in vocalization. See the table below.

	Broken Plural	Singular
Successors	خُلْفَاءُ	خَلِيفَةٌ
Poor men	فُقَرَاءُ	فَقِير ٌ
Friends	أصدقاء	صَدِيقٌ
Countries	بُلْدَانٌ	ؠڵڎٞ
Youths	شَبَانٌ	شَابٌ
Braves	شَجْعَانٌ	شُجَاعٌ
Months	أشْهُرٌ	شَهْرُ
Commanders	أُمْرَاءٌ	أمِيرُ
Schools	مَدَارِسٌ	مَدْرَسَةٌ
Offices	مَكَاتِبٌ	مَكْتَبُ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 6

'The broken plurals follow the singular nouns in all cases'. Examine this statement.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

The plurals in Arabic is called al-Jam'u . It points to people, things, animals or places that are more than two. The plurals in Arabic are classified into Sound Plurals and Broken Plurals. The sound plurals could also be either the sound masculine plural which takes waw and nun in the nominative cases or yau and nun in the accusative and genitive cases or the sound feminine plural which takes alif and open tau as suffixes; and dammah in the nominative case; and kasrah in the accusative and genitive cases. The plural forms of Arabic broken plurals follow the singular nouns in all cases.

5.0 SUMMARY (خُلاصنة)

This unit explores the basic techniques of how to identify the various plurals that are available in Arabic Language. In discusses the sound masculine and sound feminine plurals and their nominative, accusative and genitive cases. The broken plurals is appropriately explained; its measures as produced by the grammarians briefly mentioned and what it shares in common with its singular forms highlighted.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

- 1) Identify the plurals among the following words and state the class of plurals they belong. حَدَائِقُ وَلَٰدُ بِنْتُ عَمَالَ مُكَرَّمَاتَ مَلابِسُ قَلْم يَعَالَ مُكَرَّمَاتَ مَلابِسُ قَلْم يَعَالَ مُكَرَّمَات مَلابِسُ قَلْم يَعَالُ مُكَرَّمَات مَلابِسُ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا مَا يَعْمَالُ مُكَرَّمًا عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَمَالًا مُكَاتِبٌ جَامِعَات عَمَالًا مُعَالِّبٌ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَاتِبٌ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَلَيْ عَلَيْ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْ عَلَيْكُ عَمَالًا مُكَرَّمًا عَلَيْكُ عَل

1.0 INTRODUCTION

You are welcome to this unit; you will be introduced to pronouns in Arabic language. These pronouns are of different kinds like any other nouns in the different languages. The mastery of your mother tongue pronouns will come to your aid in this unit. Relax and start reading the contents one after the other. You will also learn the usage of these pronouns in the Arabic language, how, when and why are they used. The personal, the demonstrative, the relative and the interrogative pronouns are your focus in this unit. Once again take it easy and let us advance.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- state the different kinds of pronouns in Arabic language
- explain the grammatical rules governing pronouns in the Arabic language
- illustrate how Arabic pronouns are used in oral and written expressions.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 Personal Pronouns

When pronouns stand for persons, they are called personal pronouns. Personal pronouns in Arabic can be either in singular, dual or plural. When they are in second and third person singular and plural, personal pronouns in Arabic may also indicate gender. In other words, they may indicate masculine or feminine. Persons are another feature of the personal pronoun. This is another grammatical category of pronouns. Here, let us imagine that you and another person or persons are involved in a discussion about another person or persons who may not necessarily be present. You are the 1st person when you talk; your listener or listeners, are the 2nd person and the one spoken about is 3rd person.

The following are the personal pronouns in Arabic language in nominative case.

Singular Personal Pronouns

First Person	(Masculine & Fe	eminine)	I		أثًا
Second Person	(Masculine)	You		أثت
Second Person	(Feminine)	You		أنت
Third Person (Mase	culine)	He		ھُو
Third Person (Feminine) She			هِي

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

The personal pronouns are very important in our everytime expression. Discuss them in detail with illustrations.

3.2 Demonstrative Pronouns أَسْمَاءُ الْإِشَارَة

A pronoun is demonstrative when it points to a person or thing. Usually demonstrative pronoun can be either singular, dual or plural depending on whether the person or things they point out are singular, dual or plural.

The Demonstrative Pronouns are:

This	(Masculine)	Singular	هَدَا
This	(Feminine)	Singular	هَذِه
These	(Masculine)	Dual	هَدَان
These	(Feminine)	Dual	هَتَان
These	(Masc & Fem)	Plural	هَوُّلاء

Let us use them in complete sentences

This is a boy هَذَا وَلَد وَلَدَانَ هَذَهِ بِئْت This is a girl هَذِهِ بِئْت These are two boys هَذَانَ وَلَدَانَ عَلَامَ لَا الله هَذَانَ وَلَدَانَ عَلَامَ لَا الله عَمَّانَ بِئْتَانَ These are two girls هَوُلاءِ أُو لاد(These are boys (more than two) هَوُلاءِ بَنَات These are girls (more than two) هَوُلاء بَنَات

3.3 Interrogative Pronouns (asmau al-istifhamiyat) أُ سَاء الْإِسْتَقْهَام

Pronouns used for the purpose of asking questions are called interrogative, al-istifham الإسْتَقْهَام

The most Common Interrogative Pronouns are:

Who?		مَنْ	?
What?	مَاذَا	مَا	?
Where?		أَيْنَ	?
How?		كَيْفَ	?
When?		مَثَى	?
How many?		كَمْ	?
How much?		بِكَمْ	?
Which?		أيْ	?

See how we make use of these in a given sentence

Who came yesterday?!مَنْ جَاءَ أَمْس What is this?!مَا هَذَا؟! Where are you going?! گیْنَ تَدْهَبُ؟! How are you? گیْفَ حَالُكَ؟! When are you returning? مَتَى تَرْجِعُ؟! How many books did you read?

بِكُمْ هَذَا الْقَلْمُ؟?How much is this pen أَىْ بَيْتٌ؟؟Which house

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 3

Enumerate the interrogative pronouns and use them in sentences of your own.

3.4 Relative Pronouns أَسْمَاءُ الْمَوْصُولَة

Relative pronouns are similar to interrogate pronouns, except that relative pronouns introduce subordinate clauses, and at the same time connect them with the main phrases; e. g. الرَّجُلُ الَّذِي جَاءَ أَمْس (The man who came yesterday).

The relative pronouns in Arabic are:

The following are the dual personal relative pronouns in Arabic language in nominative case.

Which, that, who	(Masc. dual)	اللذان
Which, that, who	(Fem. dual)	اللثان
Which, that, who	(Masc. Plural)	الَّذِين
Which, that, who	(Fem. Plural)	اللآتِي

After you have been introduced to the above relative pronouns let us make use of them in sentences.

The boy who went to the school الْوَلَدُ الَّذِي دَهَبَ إِلَى الْمَدْرَسَة The woman who returned from the market الْمَرْأَةُ الَّتِي رَجَعْتُ مِنَ السُّوق

الْبِنْتَانِ الْلُتَانِ رَأْيِثُهُمَا فِي الطَّرِيقِ.The two girls whom I saw on the way

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 4

Use five of the relative pronouns in three different sentences in which they will be in the nominative, accusative and genitive cases.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

Pronouns are used in place of nouns to avoid monotony. As we have first, second and third person pronouns in the nominative, accusative and genitive cases, we also have them in the singular, dual and plural forms. Other different kinds of pronouns range from the personal, demonstrative, interrogative to the relative pronouns.

(خُلاصنة) SUMMARY

This unit introduces you to different kinds of pronouns. It also teaches you how to make use of some of these pronouns in a sentence. The difference between singular, dual and plural personal pronouns surfaced while the grammatical cases in which we can find the pronouns are not left out. The Pronouns have been used in sentences as illustrations and examples.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

- 1) Write down all the personal pronouns from singular to plural.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the last unit of this module. Here you will be introduced to subjects and predicates in Arabic Language. You will also learn the adjectives and its various forms. The subjects, predicates and adjectives are very important in Arabic grammar. We hope you will take your time dealing with them diligently. Thank you.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- discuss the Subject and predicate in Arabic language
- construct sentences consisting of subject and predicate in Arabic
- explain the adjective and its various forms in spoken and written Arabic
- state the difference between subject, predicate and adjective.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 Subject and Predicate الْمُبْتَدَأُوا الْخَبَرُ

Subject and predicate are nominative nouns. The subject (al-mubtada) begins a nominal sentence while the predicate (al-khabar) complete its full meaning. We want you to know that the subject (al-mubtada') is always definite noun while the predicate is (al-khabar) always indefinite. The examples below will assist you in comprehending the above explanations.

الْعِلْمُ نُور The male teacher is standing الْمُعَلِّمُ قَائِم The boy is present

The girl is small الْبِنْتُ صَغِيرَة

The house is spacious

The man is tall

The female teacher is sitting

The woman is beautiful

The blessing is a wish

The female student is clever

الْمَرْكَةُ مَطْلُوبَةُ

You will observe that the nouns that begin the sentences have definite articles that is what we called the subject al-mubtada' and the nouns that complete the sentences are indefinite articles. This is called (al-khabar). Also, you will notice that if the subject is masculine the predicate will also be masculine and vice-versa. You can also change the singular to dual or plural. Once you have done that, the subject and predicate will also be either dual or plural. Now let us change some of those examples above to dual and plural. You will notice that if subject changes, the predicate will also change.

The two boys are present الوَلَدَانِ حَاضِرَان The two women are beautiful

These are dual examples. Now let us see the plural form

The men are tall الرِّجَالُ طُويلُون The female students are clever

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

Explain the subject and predicate in Arabic grammar. Illustrate your answer with two samples each.

3.2 The Adjective (aş-Şifah) الصِفَّة

In Arabic, we say adjective and the qualified (as-sifatu wa 'l-mawsuuf'). In the Arabic tongue, adjective may be used as a noun. Both noun and adjective share the same pattern of grammatical rules. They must agree in singular, dual or plural pattern; so also in the definite or indefinite, masculine or feminine patterns. Constant practice in reading and consultation of dictionary of Arabic will determine how much you can acquire as far as nouns and adjectives are concerned. Never mind, we will give you the guideline that if you see the adjective and the qualified, you will quickly recognize them.

As you are following me in this discussion, the knowledge of subjects and predicates will assist you a lot. Hope you have gone through and master the rules.

The adjective and the qualified (noun) are twin sisters; they do not leave each other. They look alike; they share the same thing in common. The examples below will showcase these latter characteristics. Let us have them.

The small boy	الوَلَدُ الصَغِير
The fall man	الرَّجُلُ الطويل
The beautiful woman	الْمَرْ أَهُ الْجَمِيلَة
The small girl	البنت الصتَغيرَة
The glorious Qur'ān	ٱلقُرْآنُ الْكَرِيم
The short story	الْقِصِيَّةُ الْقَصِيرَة

Now looking at the above examples, all are combination of masculine and feminine, definite and indefinite.

We must point out that there is a difference between subject and predicate and adjective because the adjective follows the qualified in all while the predicate does not follow the subject in all. What do we mean by all is that if noun is singular form, an adjective will also be singular. Further, if it is either dual, plural, masculine, feminine, nominative, accusative, or genitive, it should be reiterated by way of emphasis that the adjective follows the noun in all. Let us take example one be one by using one example for masculine in all and feminine in all.

A small boy		وَلَدٌ صَغِير (inative
A small boy	(Accusar	وَلَداً صَغِيرًا(tive
A small boy	(Genit	وَلَدٍ صَغِير (tive
The small boy	(nom)	الولد الصَّغير (.Masc)
The small boy	(Acc.)	الولد الصَّغِير (.Masc)
The small boy	(Gen.)	(Masc.)	الولد الصَّغِير
A small girl	(nom) (fem)		بِنْتُ صَغِيرَة
A small girl	(Acc.)	بِنْتًا صَغِيرَة (fem)
A small girl	(Gen.)	(fem)	بِنْتٍ صَغِيرَة
The small girl	(nom)	الْبِنْتُ الصَّغِيرَة (fem)
The small girl	(Acc)	البِنْتَ الصَّغِيرَة (fem)
The small girl	(Gen)	الْبِنْتِ الصَّغِيرَة(fem)

You will notice that they follow each other in all ramifications. The same thing occurs in dual form. The only slight change is in plural where if noun is a sound plural the adjective can be either sound or broken. At times noun can also be broken while adjective takes different form of plural. All is well, when noun is plural adjective is also plural.

Examples:

الأولادُ الصَغِيرُون The small boys الْبَنَاتُ الصَغِيرَات الْبَنَاتُ الصَغِيرَاتِ

Hence, you could see that nouns are broken plural while adjectives are sound plural. It may also be other way round. e. g.

The Ignorant travelers. الْمُسَافِرُونَ الْجَهال The rich Muslims. الْمُسْلِمُونَ ٱلْأَعْنِيَاء

Hence, the nouns are sound plural, while the adjectives take the broken plural form.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

The adjective must agree with the noun it qualifies in all cases. Discuss this submission.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَّاجُ)

In the Arabic language a sentence may consist of subject and predicate. The subject and predicate as a grammatical rule differ from each other in certain characteristics. While the subject is definite the predicate is indefinite. On the other hand, the two are nominative nouns.

Secondly, adjectives that qualify nouns share the same features such as numbers, gender, definiteness or indefiniteness. So also they must agree in the nominative, accusative and genitive cases.

Finally the difference between subjects and predicates and adjectives is that adjective follow the qualified in all, while the subject differs from predicate in the article. The only area where there is a slight change is in plural form where either of the two (noun and adjective) (subject and predicate) can take the sound plural while the other take the broken plural.

(خُلاصَةُ) SUMMARY

In this unit you have been introduced to subjects and predicates. You have also learnt the adjective and the qualified. You have been told that the qualified is a noun described by an adjective. In this unit also, you are acquainted with the fact that the subject, the predicate and the adjective share many things in common except in some places where they differ from one another.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

1) Explain fully what you know on the subject, the predicate and the adjective in the Arabic language.

- 2) Write ten sentences in Arabic subject and predicate five for the masculine gender and five others for the feminine.
- 3) Use these nouns and adjectives in all forms that you know. الْمُعَلِمُ الْمُجْنَّهِد

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the first unit of module two. In this unit you will be introduced to the importance of verbs in Arabic language. Type of verbs such as Trilateral and quadrilateral verbs shall also be introduced to you. Come on board, let us move forward.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- state the importance of verbs in Arabic language grammar.
- highlight the trilateral verbs in Arabic language grammar
- identify the quadrilateral verbs in Arabic grammar.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 Importance of Verbs in Arabic Grammar

Verbs in Arabic language, just like in any other languages of the world, are a most important linguistic element. We want you to know that there is no other part of speech that could exist alone as a sentence and have meaning without a verb in it, where as sentence can be formed by a verb alone. If we say 'ijlis' 'sit', It is a complete sentence that could portray a full meaning that a sentence with a subject, verb and object could have. A verb could be defined as a grammatical word that states the action(s) performed or relationship that exists between a subject and an object of a given sentence. As the link and the presenter of the actions performed or the relationship that exist between the 'performer' and the 'action performed', the verb is then very important aspect of the grammatical parts of speech in Arabic language .

3.2 Types of Verbs

In Arabic language there are trilateral verbs and quadrilateral verbs. The two types have their way of measures. We shall discuss these verbs extensively.

3.2.1 The Trilateral Verb

Generally, composition of Arabic verbs is three radicals which are the root letters. The reason why it is called trilateral verbs is that it consists of three radical letters. For example ' Kataba', he wrote. The three radicals here are فعل k, t, b. The measure of the trilateral verbs is fa 'ala فعل or fa 'ula فعل or fa 'ula فعل .

The first letter of trilateral verb is called fāu al-fi li, فَاءُ الْفِعْل the middle or second letter is known as aynu al-fi'il, عَيْنُ الْفِعْل while the last letter is Lam al-fi'il لأُمُ الْفِعْل These are explained in the following examples

The meaning of فعل فعل فعل is 'to do' because it is a doing word (action), 'Kataba' means 'to write' سَمع sami'a means, to hear and قرب agruba is to move near.

This table will illustrate our saying clearer

فعُل Faʻula	Faʻila فَعِل	Faʻala فَعَل
To be honored	لعِب To play	To write گتب
گر ُم	2 2
ضَنَخُم To be huge	سمع To hear	نصر To help
To be dignified	حَمِد To praise	To sit جَلْس
شَرُف	-
To be difficult	قرح To rejoice	قتّح To open
صنعُب	, C
To move near	عَطِش To feel thirsty	رَجَد To find
قرُب	·

There are some other verbs that consist of additional letters(s) with trilateral verbs. We do not regard them as quadrilateral. These shall be taught in higher level. It should be noted that the above table is practically based on simple trilateral verbs.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

Highlight the significance of verb as a part of speech. Discuss the trilateral patterns of the Arabic language verbs.

3.2.2 Quadrilateral Verbs

The quadrilateral verb in Arabic language is those verbs that consist of four radical letters. For example بَسْمُلُ 'basmala'. He began 'with the name of Allah'. The measure of quadrilateral verb in Arabic language is fa'lala, to do, The examples of quadrilateral verbs are the following.

To roll دَحْرَج To shake زَلْزَل To laugh قَهْقَه To say the name of God بَسْمَلَ

As we have told you earlier, the quadrilateral verbs in Arabic language are very few in number. We are introducing these verbs to you so that you will identify them in any Arabic sentence.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

How many radical letters do the quadrilateral verbs contain? Illustrate your answer with examples.

4.0 CONCLUSION (الإستنتاج)

Verbs are very important parts of speech in any language including Arabic. The trilateral and the quadrilateral are two important patterns of Arabic language verbs. The trilateral are verbs that consist of three radical letters wile the quadrilaterals are those consisting of four radical letters. The Arabic trilateral verbs are many while the quadrilateral verbs are in only four patterns.

These are Arabic language verbs that need no object.

Let us see the example of both transitive and intransitive verb in two sentences.

Transitive Verb: قَتَلَ أَحْمَدُ الْكَلْبِ (Ahmad killed the dog).

You see that Ahmad is subject, قَتُل is the verb and الْكَلْب is the object of the sentence.

Intransitive Verb: جَاءَ آدَم Adam came ).

You see that the sentence does not require an object.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 3

Expatiate upon transitive and intransitive verbs in the Arabic language. Provide examples for your submissions.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

Arabic language verbs are divided into sound and weak verbs. The sound verbs are those whose letters are completely sound, those that have hamzah as one of its trilaterls called mahmūz and those with doubled letter called muda 'aff.

The weak verbs are those that contain weak letter in one of its trillaterals. The grammatical terminology for verb whose  $f\bar{a}u$  'l-fi'l is a weak letter is  $mith\bar{a}l$ ; the verb whose 'aynu 'l-fi'l is week is called ajwaf while that whose  $l\bar{a}mu$  'l-fi'l is weak is called  $manq\bar{u}$ su 'l- $bin\bar{a}$ . If a verb has more than one weak verb its terminology is  $laf\bar{i}f$  which could be mafruq if separated or maqrun if unseperated. Arabic verbs can also be transitive requiring an object or intransitive not requiring an object.

5.0 SUMMARY (خُلاصة)

This unit introduces you to the divisions of verb in the Arabic language. It discusses the division of sound verbs into Sālim (free), Mahmūz (Possessor of Hamzat) and muda'af (compound);and the division of weak verbs into mithāl, ajwaf, nāqis and lafif. The transitive and intransitive verbs are also treated in the Unit. Copius examples in words and sentences are provided for illustration. The unit also contains tests meant for your self assessment.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

1) Define Arabic language sound verbs and illustrate them with examples.

- (2) Give a list of Arabic weak verbs and their various divisions with illustrations.
- 3) Explain the transitive and intransitive verbs in Arabic language. Mention five verbs for each of them and use them in sentences.

You will be introduced to the easier techniques with which an Arabic grammar leaner like you could apply in conjugating perfect Arabic verbs.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- construct oral and written sentences using Arabic perfect verbs
- identify the first person singular, dual and plural measure of Arabic perfect verbs
- identify the second person singular, dual and plural measure of Arabic perfect verbs
- identify the third person singular, dual and plural measure of the Arabic perfect verbs
- identify the morphemes (suffixation) with which could be added with a verb to facilitate grammatically correct conjugation.

3.1 Conjugation of the Past Tense/Perfect Trillateral Sound Verbs

The past tense/simple perfect trilliteral sound verb is a verb used when we want to indicate activities or state in the past without indicating any connection with the present. The simple perfect / past tense of trilateral sound verb is conjugated according to the following paradigm.

1 st person singular (Masculine & Feminine)	I did	فعَلْتَ
2 nd person singular Masculine	You did	فعلت
2 nd person singular feminine	You did	فُعَلْتُ
3 rd person singular masculine	He did	فُعَلَ
3 rd person singular feminine	She did	فَعَلْتَ
2 nd person dual (masculine & feminine)	You did	فعَلْتُمَا
3 rd person dual masculine	They did	فِعْلاً
3 rd person dual masculine	They did	فَعَلْثَا
1 st person dual and plural (masc. & fem.)	We did	فَعَلْنَا
2 nd person plural masculine	You did	فَعَلْثُمْ
2 nd person plural feminine	You did	فَعَ ا ثُنَّ
3 rd person plural masculine	They did	فَعَلُوا
3 rd person plural feminine	They did	فَعَلْنَ

There is a change of vowel in the third letter of the radicals. i.e. 'J' other letters do not change. For example fa'ala 'he did' changes to fa'altu 'i.i.', 'I did'. There is no difference in conjugation whether a verb is fa'ala or fa'ila 'i.i.' or fa'ala i. it is only lam 'J' that will change during the conjugation. We will give you examples of various patterns.

Example (A)

قَعَل to do گتُب To write فَعَل

This is where the second letter is given fat-hah 'a'

1 st person singular (masc.and fem.)	I wrote	كَتَبْتُ
2 nd person singular masculine	You wrote	كَتَبْتَ
2 nd person singular feminine	You wrote	كَتَبْتِ
3 rd person singular masculine	He wrote	كَتَبَ
3 rd person singular feminine	She wrote	كَتَبِتْ
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	You wrote	كَتَبْتُمَا
3 rd person dual masculine	They wrote	كَتَبَا
3 rd person dual feminine	They wrote	كَتَبَتَا
1 st person dual & plural (Masc. &	We wrote	كَتَبْنا
fem.)
2 nd person plural Masculine	You wrote	كَتَبْثُمْ
2 nd person plural feminine	You wrote	كَتَبْثُنَّ
3 rd person plural masculine	They wrote	كَتَبُوا
3 rd person plural feminine	They wrote	كَتَبْنَ

Example (B)

We now conjugate لعب which equates فعل pattern:

Willest equates	- ,
1 st person singular (masculine &	I played	لَعِبْتُ feminine)
2 nd person singular masculine	You played	أعِبْت أعِبْتِ
2 nd person singular feminine	You played	لعِبْتِ
3 rd person singular masculine	He played	لَعِبَ
3 rd person singular feminine	She played	لعِبَتْ
2 nd person dual (masculine and	You played	لَعِبْثُمَا
feminine)
3 rd person dual masculine	They played	لعِبَا
3 rd person dual feminine	They played	لَعِبْتَا لَعِبْنَا
1 st person dual and plural (masc. &	We played	لعِبْنَا
fem.)
2 nd person plural masculine	You played	لَعِبْتُمْ
2 nd person plural feminine	You played	ڵۼؚؠ۠ڷؙڹۘٞ
3 rd person plural masculine	They played	لعِبْتُنَّ لعِبُوا
3 rd person plural feminine	They played	لَعِبْنَ

Example (C):

شرُف such as فَعُل such as

1 st person singular (masc. & fem.)	I am dignified	شرُفت
2 nd person singular masculine	You are dignified	شَرُفْتَ
2 nd person singular feminine	You are dignified	شرُفتِ
3 rd person singular masculine	He is dignified	شر ُف َ
3 rd person singular feminine	She is dignified	شَرُقتْ
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	You are dignified	شرُفتُما
3 rd person dual masculine	They are dignified	شَرُقًا
3 rd person dual feminine	They are dignified	شرُقتَا
1 st person dual & plural (masc	We aredignified	شرُفنا
&fem.)
2 nd person plural masculine	You are dignified	شرُفْتُم
2 nd person plural feminine	You are dignified	شرُفُتُنَ
3 rd person plural masculine	They are dignified	شَرُقُوا
3 rd person plural feminine	They are dignified	شرُفْنَ

Dear students you will see that the third letter changes from vowel 'a' to sukun, or 'u' at other time there are morphemes at the suffix of the verb.

There is no distinction in conjugation whether the verb is fa'ala فَعَل ,  $fa^cila$  or fa'ula فَعِل or fa'ula .

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE

Conjugate these following verbs in Arabic past tense/perfect measure.

رغب to desire
 ذَهُب to go to be difficult.

4.0 CONCLUSION. (الإستنتاج)

We hereby remind you of the basic rules by way of enphasy: The past tense/perfect trilliteral sound verb is a verb used when we want to indicate activities or state in the past without indicating any connection with thepresent.

There is a change of vowel in the third letter of the radicals. i.e. 'J' other letters do not change.

There is no difference in conjugation whether a verb is fa'ala فَعَلُ , fa'ila فَعِلُ or fa'ula فَعِلُ or fa'ula فَعِلُ

(خلاصة) SUMMARY

This unit treats the rules governing the conjugation of past tense/ perfect sound trilateral verbs which constute the largest number Arabic language verbs. The unit adequately informs you of that there are no changes regarding the second letter vowels; and that the lat leter letter's vowel changes from ___ a to sukun or u. The unit enriches your verbal vocabulary and technique of conjugation of trilateral sound verbs through adequate explanation and examples.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

You are welcome to another unit. In this unit you will be introduced to the Present Continuous/Imperfect verbs in Arabic language. The conjugation of the present active indicative form of the trilateral sound verbs will also be presented for you to study, digest and comprehend. You will also learn the future tense of the trilateral sound verbs in the unit.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- identify present continuous/imperfect tense of Arabic sound trillateral verbs
- write present continuous/imperfect tense of Arabic sound trillateral verbs in all the active indicative forms
- mention the prefixes and suffixes (morphemes) of the present continuous/imperfect tense in the Arabic language
- construct sentences using Arabic present continuous/imperfect tense trillateral sound Arabic verbs.

3.1 The Imperfect Measure of Arabic Trilateral Sound Verbs

As in the English language, the imperfect verb in Arabic is any verb that indicates the occurrence or state of an action in the present. We need to introduce you to six patterns which imperfect tense form can take before we go further. Like we have said earlier in the previous unit the perfect tense takes only three patterns which are فَعُلَ, فَعِلُ and فَعُلُ, فَعِلُ . Now let us see the patterns or forms of the imperfect verbs.

	Im	perfect			Perfect
يَڤْتَحُ	.e.g	يَفعَلُ	فَتَحَ	.e.g	فَعَلَ
يَجْلِسُ	.e.g	يَفعِلُ	جَلْسَ	.e.g	فَعِلَ
يَكْتُبُ	.e.g	يَفعُلُ	كَتُبَ	.e.g	فَعُلَ
يَلْعَبُ	.e.g	يَفعَلُ	لْعِبَ	.e.g	فَعَلَ
یَحْسِبُ	.e.g	يَفعِلُ	حَسِبَ	.e.g	فَعِلَ
يَقْرُبُ	.e.g	يَفعُلُ	قُرُبَ	.e.g	فَعُلَ

Now, take note that 'فَعَل' consists of three different patterns of imperfect. The second letter of perfect verb could be vowel 'a' 'i' or 'u', fathah, kasrah or dammah. You will also see that 'فعل 'has two imperfect forms that is, the letter could be either 'a' or 'i' (fat-hah or kasrah) in imperfect form. While the last pattern 'فعل 'remains unchanged and retains its 'u' (dammah) vowel. See the examples above as we will also illustrate it further below.

-	He opens / He is opening	يَقْتَح	to open	فَتَحَ
-	He sits / He is sitting	يَجْلِس	to sit
جَلْسَ	_
-	He writes / he is writing	یَکْتُب	to write	كَتُبَ
-	He plays / he is playing	يَلْعَب	to play	لعِبَ
-	He thinks / he is thinking	بَحْسِب	خسِب to think
-	He moves near/he is moving	يقرُب near	to move near	قُرُب

Now let us conjugate the present/imperfect tense verb of Arabic language. We want you to know that there are four letters of imperfect verb. These are hamzat 'j' nun '¿', yau '¿' and tau 'ç'. These four letters are prefixed with the imperfect verbs.

1 st person singular (masc. and fem.)	I do (af '(a) (i) (u) lu)	أقعل
2 nd person singular masculine	You do (taf '(a) (i) (u) lu)	تَقْعلُ
2 nd person singular feminine	You do (taf '(a) (i) (u)   līna)	تَقْعلِينَ
3 rd person singular masculine	He does (yaf '(a) (i) (u) lu)	يَفْعلُ
3 rd person singular	She does (taf '(a) (i) (u) lu)	تَفْعلُ
2 nd person dual (masculine and	You do (taf '(a) (i) (u)	تَقْعلا

feminine)	lani)
3 rd person dual masculine	They do (yaf '(a) (i) (u) lu)	يَقْعلان
3 rd person dual feminine	They do (taf '(a) (i) (u) lani)	تَقْعُلان
1 st person dual and plural (masc. & fem.)	We do (naf '(a) (i) (u) lu)	تَقْعلُ
2 nd person plural masculine	You do (taf '(a) (i) (u) luna)	تَقْعُلُونَ
2 nd person plural feminine	You do (taf '(a) (i) (u) lna)	تَفْعلْنَ
3 rd person plural masculine	They do (yaf '(a) (i) (u)luna)	يَقْعَلُونَ
3 rd person plural feminine	They do (yaf (a) (i) (u)lna)	يَقْعَلْنَ

In the above paradigm, you will see that we have treated the three possible ways in which the second radical of perfect 'ɛ' can be either a, i or u (fathah, kasrah and dammah). Now let use Yaftau "نوائد" "he opens/ is opening as example.

1st person singular masc. & fem.	I open / am opening	أڤتَحُ
2 nd person singular masculine	You open/ are opening	تَقْتَحُ
2 nd person singular feminine	You open/are opening	تَقْتَحِينَ
3 rd person singular masculine	He opens/is opening	يڤتَّحُ
3 rd person singular	She opens / is opening	تَقْتَحُ
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	You (two) open are opening	تَقْتَحَان
3 rd person dual masculine	They (two) open/are opening	يَقْتَحَان
3 rd person dual feminine	They (two) are pening	تَقْتَحَان
1 st person dual & plural (masc.& fem.)	We open / are opening	نَڡٛؾۘڂ
2 nd person plural masculine	You open / are opening	تَقْتَحُونَ
2 nd person plural feminine	You open /are opening	تَقْتَحْنَ
3 rd person plural masculine	They open / are opening	يَڤْتَحُونَ
3 rd person plural feminine	They open / are opening	يَڤْتَحْنَ

The above example is based on fat-hah 'a' vowel in the penultimate letter.

Now let us see the kasrah 'i' vowel in the penultimate letter also.

1 st person singular (masc. and fem.)	I sit / am sitting	أُجْلِسُ
2 nd person singular masculine	You sit / are sitting	تَجْلِسُ
2 nd person singular feminine	You sit / are sitting	تَجْلِسِينَ
3 rd person singular masculine	He sits / is sitting	يَجْلِسُ
3 rd person singular	She sits / is sitting	تَجْلِسُ
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	You sit / are sitting	تَجْلِسَان
3 rd person dual masculine	They (two) sit / are sitting	يَجْلِسَان
3 rd person dual feminine	They (two) sit / are sitting	تَجْلِسَان
1 st person dual & plural (masc. & fem).	We sit / are sitting	نَجْلِسُ
2 nd person plural masculine	You sit / are sitting	تَجْلِسُونَ
2 nd person plural feminine	You sit / are sitting	تَجْلِسْنَ
3 rd person plural masculine	They sit / are sitting	يَجْلِسُونَ
3 rd person plural feminine	They sit / are sitting	يَجْلِسْنَ

The last pattern is dammah 'u' vowel as in يَدْرُس 'he studies'.

The last pattern is dumman a vo	wer as in Estuar	CS.
1 st person singular (masc. & fam.)	I study / am studying	أَدْرُسُ
2 nd person singular masculine	You study / are studying	تَدْرُسُ
2 nd person singular feminine	You study / are studying	تَدْرُسِين
3 rd person singular masculine	He studies / is studying	یَدْرُسُ
3 rd person singular	She studies/is studying	تَدْرُسُ
2 nd person dual (masc. & fem.)	You (two) study / are studying	تَدْرُسَانِ
3 rd person dual masculine	They (two) are studying	یَدْرُسان
3 rd person dual feminine	They (two) study / are studying	تَدْرُسَان
1 st person dual &plural (masc. & fem.)	We study / are studying	نَدْرُسُ
2 nd person plural masculine	You study / are studying	تَدْرُسُونَ
2 nd person plural feminine	You study / are studying	تَدْرُسْن
3 rd person plural masculine	They study / are studying	يَدْرُسُونَ
3 rd person plural feminine	They study / are studying	يَدْرُسْنَ

This is how you will be conjugating the imperfect, simple present and present continuous tenses indicative Arabic verbs irrespective of vowel on the second letter of perfect verb.

3.2 Future Tense

The imperfect indicative in Arabic language is also used to express future action, but in this case it is generally strengthened by prefixing the future particle sa... or saofa... (will or shall). These are examples for illustratuion:

The conjugation of future tense is as follows:

The conjugation of future tense is as follows:
1 st person singular (masc. & fem.)	I will/shall write	ساًكْتُبُ سَوْفَ أكْتُبُ
2 nd person singular masculine	You will/shall write	سىَتَكْتُبُ سىَوْفَ تَكْتُبُ
2 nd person singular feminine	You will/shall write	ستَكُتُبِينَ سَوْفَ تَكُتُبِينَ
3 rd person singular masculine	(masculine) he will / shall write	سىيَكْتُبُ سىَوْفَ يَكْتُبُ
3 rd person singular	She will/shall write	ستَكُتُبُ سَوْفَ تَكْتُبُ
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	You will/shall write	ستَكُتُبان سَوْفَ تَكُتُبَانِ
3 rd person dual masculine	They will/shall write	سىيَكْتُبَان سىَوْفَ يَكْتُبَانِ
3 rd person dual feminine	They will/ shall write	سىتَكْتُبَان سىوْف تَكْتُبَانِ
1 st person dual and plural (masculine and feminine)	We will/shall write	سنَتَكْتُبُ سنَوْفَ نَكْتُبُ
2 nd person plural masculine	You will/shall write	سىَتَكْتُبُونَ سىوْف تَكْتُبُونَ
2 nd person plural feminine	You will/shall write	سىتَكْتُبْنَ سىَوْفَ تَكْتُبْنَ
3 rd person plural masculine	They will/shall write	سَيَكْتُبُونَ سَوْفَ يَكْتُبُونَ
3 rd person plural feminine	They will/shall write	سَ يَكْتُبْنَ سَوْفَ يَكْتُبْنَ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE

Give an example of the six patterns of imperfect indicative verbs in Arabic. Write them in the first, second, third, singular dual and plural forms.

4.0 CONCLUSION

By way of enphasy the following rules governing the conjugation of verbs into imperfect tense can be derived from this lesson:

The imperfect/present Continuous verb in Arabic is any verb that indicates the occurrence or state of an action in the present.

The imperfect/ present continuous tense form can take six patterns:

' فَعَلْ ' consists of three different patterns whereby the second letter could be vowel 'a' 'i' or 'u', fat-hah, kasrah or dammah.

Also ' فعل ' has two imperfect forms that is, the second letter could be either 'a' or 'i' (fat-hah or kasrah) form.

The last pattern ' فَعُلُ ' remains unchanged and retains its 'u' (dammah) vowel.

All the verbs in this category are sounds, trilateral and indicative imperfect.

The imperfect indicative in Arabic language is also used to express future action generally strengthened by prefixing the future particle sa... or saofa... (will or shall).

5.0 SUMMARY

This unit treats some basic techniques of conjugation of imperfect verbs. Specifically, it analyzes the six features that affects the vowels of the penultimate letter of the perfect tense which is the middle letter and could be vowel a, i, or u. (fat-hah, kasrah or dammah). It shows that these vowels do not change the paradigm. The examples also include the four letters  $\dot{\varphi}$ ,  $\dot{\varphi}$ , and  $\dot{\varphi}$  that are prefixed with the imperfect tense. Examples also include thye technique of conjugating the singular, dual and plural forms of the imperfect tense.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

Conjugate these verbs in imperfect forms

1.	يَقْتُلُ	he kills
2.	يَلْعَبُ	he plays
3.	يَقْرَحُ	he rejoices
4.	يَسْلِمُ	he is free
5.	يَحْسُنُ	he is good
6.	يَضرْبُ	he beats

You will also be introduced to the techniques of conjugating Arabic verbs into the imperative measure. Knowledge acquired from this unit will initiate you properly to the method of conjugating Arabic verbs in the imperative form. We implore you to revise the techniques and methods of conjugating all verbs as they were taught earlier so as to understand this unit better.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- identify the imperative verbs in Arabic grammar
- describe how various verbs could be conjugated into the imperative
- demonstrate the use of the imperative in oral and written Arabic.

You are now invited into the world of conjugation of verbs into the imperative.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 The Imperative and How to Formulate It

The Arabic imperative proper is any verb that is used to make a request or demand an action. The action may be immediate or later. The imperative is derived from the second persons irrespective of the number (singular, dual and plural). So far these are the persons to be commanded or from whom actions are demanded. The prefixed tau 'i' and its vowel fat-hah, 'a' are cut off, this 'ta' 'a' and the vowel will be replaced by hamzat al-wasl 'j'. There will be a change at the vowel of the last letter of the verbs. It is only in the second person plural feminine that the vowel of the last letter will not change. Thus, it will remain as it is. Remember that, we have said this tense is derived from second persons of imperfect verbs. e.g. taktubu, 'you write' . The imperative tense will be 'uktub' 'write' ' 'كُتُب '. From the above example you will see that the prefixed tau and vowel 'a' have been cut off, while they are replaced by hamzatu al-waşl and vowel 'u'. There is a change of vowel at the last letter's vowel from 'u' to 'sukun'.

Now let us see the operation of these following verbs.

Second person singular masculine	Write	أكْتُبْ
Second person singular feminine	Write	أكْتُبي
Second person dual masculine & feminine	Write	أكْتُبَا
Second person plural masculine	Write	أكْتُبُوا
Second person plural feminine	Write	أكْتُبْنَ

You will observe that, it is only second person singular that the vowel changes from 'u' to 'sukun'. Others are omission of letters. Now see the imperatives as they are derived from imperfects.

تَكْتُبُ	$\leftarrow$	ٲػؙؙؙؙؙؙ۠ٮڹ
تَكْتُبِينَ	$\leftarrow$	أكثبي
تَكْثُبَانِ	$\leftarrow$	أكثبا
تَكْثُبُونَ	$\leftarrow$	أكْتُبُوا
تَكْثُنْنَ	$\leftarrow$	ٱػ۠ؿؙڹؽؘ

3.2 Rules Guiding Hamzat al-waşl

The vowel on hamzat al-waşl will follow the penultimate letter of imperfect form to indicate which of the vowels 'u' or 'i' (dammah or kasrah) is going to be used. If the imperative is vowel 'a' or 'i' the hamzat al-waşl will be given vowel 'i' but if vowel 'u' (dammah) is on the penultimate letter, then hamzatu al-waşl will also possess 'u'.

Like the example above you will see that 'tau' is the penultimate letter of the verb 'taktubu' ' تَكُتُبُ ', you write. The 'tau' is given dammah 'u'; this results in giving hamzatu al-waşl of 'uktub' 'write' ' أكتُبُ ' dammah.

Let us illustrate the above explanations with the following examples.

Example One

(tadrusu, 'you write' تَدْرُس with penultimate letter given dammah 'u')

- 1	$\mathcal{L}$	,
2 nd person singular masculine	Learn	ٲۮڔؙڛۛ
2 nd person singular feminine	Learn	ٲۮۯؙڛؚۑ
2 nd person dual (masculine and feminine)	Learn	أَدْرُسَا
2 nd person plural masculine	Learn	أُدْرُسُوا
2 nd person plural feminine	Learn	أُدْرُسْنَ

Example Two

'tajilsu', 'you sit' 'تَجْلِس' with kasrah 'i' at the penultimate letter.

2 nd person singular masculine	Sit down	اِجْلِسْ
2 nd person singular feminine	Sit down	اِجْلِسِي
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	Sit down	اِجْلِسَا
2 nd person plural masculine	Sit down	اِجْلِسُوا
2 nd person plural feminine	Sit down	اِجْلِسْنَ

Example Three

taftahu 'you open' 'قْقَت ' with penultimate letter possessing fat-hah 'a'

2 nd person singular masculine	Open	ٳڨؾۘڂ
2 nd person singular feminine	Open	إقتحي
2 nd person dual (masc. and fem.)	Open	إقتحا
2 nd person plural masculine	Open	إقتَّحُوا
2 nd person plural feminine	Open	اِقْتَحْنَ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE

Explain in detail the imperative verb in Arabic language and the technique of con jugating it.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

Command or the Imperative formula can only be conjugated and applied to the second persons irrespective of the number or gender. It is to be derived from the imperfect verbs only. The prefixed tau 'i' and its vowel fat-hah, 'a' are cut off and be replaced by hamzat al-wasl 'î'. Then there will be a change at the vowel of the last letter of the verbs. It is only in the second person plural feminine that the vowel of the last letter will not change.

(خُلاصَةُ) SUMMARY

This unit explains the imperative in the Arabic language. It explains the rule and discusses the basic techniques of conjugating verbs into imperative. The highlight of such rules and technique is that, it is only from the second persons irrespective of number or gender that the imperative formular can be derived. The rules guiding hamzatu-al-wasl, the end of the verbs to form imperative are also included in the Unit.

6.0 TUTOR-MARKED ASSIGNMENT

Conjugate the following second person's imperfect verbs onto their appropriate imperatives.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The last Module ended with a study of imperative verbs. The whole of Module Two dealt with verbs. In this Module, you will begin another element of the sentence which is also very important in that it functions as that which joins parts of the sentence together. You will be introduced to Arabic prepositions. Because of the certain number of the preposition that you are about to study, you will not be given any vocabulary study for this Unit. The prepositions and their meaning would be the words to be memorized for this unit. You will learn conjunction in this Unit as well.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- list all the Arabic Prepositions and their meaning
- identify Conjunction words in the Arabic language and give their meaning

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 Notes on the Prepositions

A preposition in Arabic is a word used with a noun or pronoun to show their relationship with other words in a sentence. Prepositions are words that are used to help substantives to express their case functions. They are called prepositions because their position is immediately before the substantives they are associated with. Prepositions are to aid in expressing the case functions which are in use by the Arabic language speaker. The meaning of the prepositions depends however on some other factors. In order to translate the prepositions accurately, the following should be observed.

- a) The basic meaning of the preposition as indicated in the Arabic usage.
- b) The case construction with which preposition is used, and
- c) The use as indicated by the content of the passage. i.e. the context

3.2 ARABIC PREPOSITIONS

Arabic prepositions only have impact on the nouns. The particles are the following:

	From	مِنْ
	On	مِنَ عَلَى عَنْ مَعَ بِ
	To	إلى
Out of, Away	from	عَنْ
	In	فِي
	With, in	ب
	With	مَعَ
	Like	نی
	For, to	ل
	Since	مُنْدُ
	Since	مُدْ
	Except	خَلا
	Except	عَدَا
	Until	حَتَّى حَاشَا
	Except
		ت
		تَ و
		ب

The last three 'ت' 'ب' (ta, wa, bi) are used for oath.

e.g. By Allah Wallahi وَاللهِ By Allah Tallahi By Allah Billahi

A noun must be in genitive case  $(majr\bar{u}r)$ , if it is preceded by any of the above particles. An illustration is given below.

From a school,	مِنْ مَدْرَسَةٍ
Away from the place	عَن الْمَنْزِلِ
With the knoeldge	بالعِلْم
On the table	عَلَى الْمَكْتَبِ
To mosques	إلى الْمَسْجِدِ
Like the light	كَالنُّور
For benfit	لِخَيْرٍ

There are other types of preposition such as

With	عِنْدَ
Under	تَحْتَ
Above	فَوْقَ
After	بَعْد
Before	قَبْلَ

عِنْدَ الْمُلْكِ عِنْدَ الْمُلْكِ عِنْدَ الْمُلْكِ Under the chair

Above the free.

After the party,

Before the noon,

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

مَسْجِدٌ	,A mosque
ٱلنُّورُ	The light

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

Explain the prepositions and conjunctions in Arabic language. Mention one example each for both the preposition and conjunction.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

1. Prepositions are words that express relationships between two words. When prepositions occur before nouns, those nouns will be in genitive cases, that is, they will be given kasrah, vowel 'i'.

2. Conjunctions in Arabic language are words that are used to link other words in a sentence. Such other words that are joined together agree with each other in grammatical rules such as nominative, accusative and genitive cases.

(خُلاصنة) SUMMARY

This Unit treats grammatical issues relating to Preposition and Conjunction particules in the Arabic language. It enumerates the particles and gives their meaning and functions. The Conclusion highlights the grammatical rules and other relevant salient points derivable from the discussions. Copious examples and necessary illustrations are provided as well as self assessment exercises that will help learners.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

In this unit, you will be taught grammatical rules governing verbs in the imperfect tenses in the subjunctive cases. This will involve your recollection of some verb patterns and structures you have learnt earlier in some of the previous Units, e. g. sound verbs, the trilateral etc etc. Subjecting imperfect verbs to the subjuctive moods is another important Arabic grammatical phenomenon. The rules must be observed for the expressions to be adjudged grammatically perfect. For this reason, this lesson is important - you will agree with me. You are therefore welcomed to the study of imperfect verbs in the subjunctive mood and the rules underlying its application.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- list the subjunctive particles
- identify the imperfect verbs having subjunctive ending
- recognize imperfect verbs that should be put in the subjunctive mood
- demonstrate the techniques of putting imperfect verbs in the subjunctive moods.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 The Subjunctive Particles

The following are the subjunctive particles in Arabic

3.2 Impact of Subjunctive Particles on Imperfect Verbs

Like we have told you in our introduction to this unit, the imperfect subjunctive could be compared with the present form of subjunctive tense in English. The perfect indicative singular will change in the last letter's vowel except the second person singular feminine that will change by omission of the letter. Others which end with the preceded ' ' by a long vowel after the last radical lose their ' and if the preceding long vowel is dammah 'u' an extra alif is added. e.g. lan yaktubu (they will never write), الذُ يَكُنُونُ . The second person and the third person feminine plural will not change in their forms. They remain as they are in indicative form.

'lan' نُنْ is a particle of negation. It negates the future of imperfect e.g.

لنْ أكْتُب (lan aktuba) I will never write.

3.3 Application of Rule of Subjunctive Particles or Imperfect Verb

This is the pattern to be followed in applying the rule of impact of Arabic subjunctive particles on imperfect verb forms. Let us see how lan 'نَكُنُب' 'he writes' as in the indicative will change in meaning and form in the subjunctive

I will/shall never write	لَنْ أَكْتُبَ
You will never write (masc.) sing.	لَنْ تَكْتُبَ
You will never write (fem) (sing.)	لَنْ تَكْنُبِي
He will never write	لْنْ يَكْتُبَ
She will never write	لَنْ تَكْتُبَ

You will never write (masc. fem) dual	لْنْ تَكْثُبَا
We will/shall never write	ڵڹ۠ نَكْتُبَ
You will never write (masc.) plural	لَنْ تَكْتُبُوا
You will never write (fem.) plural	آنْ تَكْتُبْنَ
They will never write (masc) plural	آنْ يَكْتُبُوا
They will never write (fem.) plural	ڵڹ۠ يَػ۠ٛٚٚؾؙڹ۠ڹؘ

Let us take the subjunctive particle kay في meaning 'so that' as another example and see how the rule is applied on another imperfect indicative to give us subjunctive mood. The impact of this subjunctive particle on the imperfect indicative يَدُرُسُ (yadrusu) he studies, will be as follows.

So that I study	كَيْ أَدْرُسَ
So that you study (Masc) (Sing)	كَيْ تَدْرُسَ
So that you study (fem.) (sing)	كَيْ تَدْرُسَ
So that he studies (Masc)	كَيْ يَدْرُسَ
So that she studies (fem.)	كَيْ تَدْرُسَ
So that you study (masc. and fem.)	كَيْ تَدْرُسَا
So that they study (masc.) dual	كَيْ يَدْرُسَا
So that they study (fem.) dual	كَيْ تَدْرُسَا
So that we study	كَيْ نَدْرُسَ
So that you study (masc.) plural	كَيْ تَدْرُسُوا
So that you study (fem.)	كَيْ تَدْرُسْنَ
So that they study (masc.) plural	كَيْ يَدْرُسُوا
So that they study (fem.) plural	كَيْ يَدْرُسْنَ

We give another example of impact of subjunctive particle on imperfect indicative verb as follows by using hatta, until حتَّى with the indicative verb yadh-habu he goes يَدْهَبُ

Until I go	حَتَّي أَدْهَبَ
Until you go (masc.) (sing)	حَتَّي تَدْهَبَ
Until you go (fem) (sing)	حَتَّي تَدْهَبِي
Until he goes (masc.) sing	حَتَّي يَدْهَبَ
Until she goes (fem.) (sing)	حَتَّي تَدْهَب
Until you go (masc. and fem.) dual	حَتَّي تَدْهَبَا
Until they go (masc.) dual	حَتَّي يَدْهَبَا
Until they go (fem.) dual	حَتَّي تَدْهَبَا
Until we go	حَتَّي نَدْهَبَ
Until you go masc. plural	حَتَّي تَدْهَبُوا
Until you go fem. plural	حَتَّي تَدْهَبْنَ
Until they go masc.	حَتَّيَ يَدْهَبُوا

Until they go fem. plural

From the above examples, you will see that those with radical endings change with vowels, that is, from 'u' to 'a'; and those which end with 'o' lose their 'o' whenever any of the particles preceeds the imperfect verbs. The only verb that retains the same form is second person plural feminine and the third person plural feminine.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE

Explain the rules that govern the subjunctive particles with imperfect verb. Give one example each for your explanation.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

The subjunctive particles in Arabic language impacts the imperfect verbs. الأَفْعَالُ الْمُضَارِعَة (al-'af'alu, al-mudara'at) by turning them into subjunctive mood.

The perfect indicative singular will change in the last letter's vowel except the second person singular feminine that will change by omission of the letter. Others which end with the preceded '¿'by a long vowel after the last radical lose their ¿ and if the preceding long vowel is dammah 'u' an extra alif is added. e.g. lan yaktubu (they will never write), لَنْ يَكْتُبُوا . The second person and the third person feminine plural will not change in their forms. They remain as they are in indicative form.

(خُلاصَةُ) SUMMARY

In this unit, we have taught you the subjunctive particles. We listed as many as possible of the particles for you. How the particles govern the imperfect indicative verbs were also expatiated upon. Copious examples were provided to make your understanding of the topic easy.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

In this unit, you will be learning the rules relating to Arabic verbs in the jussive mood. You will learn how the indicative perfect verb changes when in the jussive mood; i.e. when preceded by jussive particles. Various interrogative particles, their use and rules will also be taught in this unit. These are needed to be properly digested and committed to memory to enable you to form your own sentences and conduct interrogation in Arabic as you like. You will recall that in the last unit you have learnt the subjunctive mood. The knowledge you have acquired there will be useful here.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this Unit, you should be able to:

- demonstrate how to utilize jussive imperfect particles in grammatically correct Arabic sentences
- identify the Arabic imperfect verbs in the jussive mood
- identify the Arabic interrogative particles.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 Jussive Particles (حُرُوفُ الْجَزِمِ)

The jussive particles in Arabic grammar - like the subjunctive which you studied in the last Unit - precedes and impacts the last letter of the Arabic imperfect verbs. i.e. الْمُضَارِعَةُ الأَفْعَالُ by making it to take the $suk\bar{u}n$  vowel. and sometimes change its meaning to the past. The following are the jussive particles in Arabic

(i) لم Did not (ii)  $^{\prime}$  do not (iii) الم if

(iv) لمّا not yet (v) لما Let or make sure

3.2 The Impact of the Jussive particles on Imperfect Verbs

The jussive particles enumerated above share some features with the subjunctive partcles. They both cause changes in the imperfect indicative verbs which have no adjunct letters following their radical letters. While the subjunctive particle makes the last radical loose its original vowel and take fat-hah, the Jussive particle makes it lose its final vowel 'u' altogether and take  $Suk\bar{u}n$  'o'. The others which has '' $\dot{\upsilon}$  ending will loose the ' $\dot{\upsilon}$ 'while the second and third person plural feminine remain unchanged. The only difference between subjunctive and jussive is that the last radicals at subjunctive take 'a' while that of the jussive is given Sukun 'o'. The others remain the same. For example

لَمْ أَكْتُبُ (l did not write (lam aktub)

3.3 Application of the Rule of the Jussive Particle on the Imperfect Verb

This paradigm must be followed as you apply the jussive particle rule on the imperfect verbs.

I did not sit	لَم أَجْلِسْ
	- '
You did not sit (masc) (sing)	لم تَجْلِسْ
You did not sit (fem.) (sing)	لُم تَجْلِسِي
He did not sit (masc.) (sing)	لم يَجْلِسَل
She did not sit (fem.) (sing)	لُم تَجْلِسْ
You did not sit (masc. and fem.) (dual)	لم تَجْلِسَا
They did not sit (masc.) (dual)	لم يَجْلِسَال
They did not sit (fem.) dual	لم تَجْلِسَا
We did not sit	لُم يَجْلِسْ
You did not sit (masc.) plural	لَّم تَجْلِسُوا
You did not sit (fem.) plural	لم تَجْلِسْنَ
They did not sit (masc.) plural	لَم يَجْلِسُوا
They did not sit (fem.) plural	لَم يَجْلِسْنَ

Let us look at another example of the jussive imperfect. This illustration will be with the verb يَعْلُم (he knows).

لمًّا أعْلَمْ I do not know yet

لمًّا تَعْلَمْ You do not know yet (masc.) (sing) لمَّا تَعْلَمُ You did not know yet (fem.) (sing) لمَّا يَعْلَمُ He does not know yet لمًّا تَعْلَمْ She does not know yet لمَّا تَعْلَمَا You do not know yet (masc. and fem.) dual لمَّا يَعْلَمَا They do not know yet (masc.) dual لمَّا تَعْلَمَا They do not know yet (fem.) dual لمَّا نَعْلَم We do not know yet لُمَّا تَعْلَمُو ا You do not know yet (masc.) plural لمَّا تَعْلَمْن You do not know yet (fem.) plural لُمَّا بَعْلُمُو ا They do not know it (masc.) plural لُمَّا بَعْلَمْن They do not know it (fem.) plural

With these two examples properly digested by you you can apply the rest. This is the way to conjugate the imperfect jussive verb in Arabic.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

List all jussive particles that you know in Arabic language and use them insentenses.

5.4 Interrogative Particles

In Arabic language, the interrogative of simple sentences is made by prefixing the two particles 'hal' or 'a' 'j'

These two particles are used for interrogation in Arabic language.For example.

هَلْ مُحَمَّدٌ قَائِمٌ؟ Does Muhammad stand?

أً مُحَمَّدٌ قَائِمٌ ؟

Is Zaydu a student? ؟ فَالْبِ اللَّهِ عَالِبُ اللَّهِ عَالِيبٌ

أ زَيْدٌ طَالِبٌ؟

هَلْ هُمْ نَيْجِيرِيُونَ؟ Are they Nigerians?

أ هُمْ نَيْجِيرِيُونَ؟

أ هِيَ مُمَرِّضَةٌ؟

آلاً هِي مُسْافِرَةُ ؟ Is she a traveler

أ هِيَ مُسَافِرَةٌ؟

hal will become hali before hamzatu al-waşl, for example:

Is the teacher present? أَمُ حَاضِرٌ ؟

'hal' ها is more often used than 'a' أ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

Mention the two interrogative particles in Arabic grammar and construct ten sentences with each of them.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

The jussive particles are five. They precede the Arabic imperfect verbs. i.e. المُضَال عَهُ الأَفْعَالُ and impact their last letter by making them take sukūn vowel and by affecting their meaning too. Imperfect Verbs which have ''ن ending will loose the 'ن' while the second and third person plural feminine remain unchanged.

'Hal' مَعْن or 'a' 'j' are two particles used for interrogation in Arabic language. They do not impact the word they precede in any way.

(خُلاصَة) SUMMARY

In this unit the five prticles that render imperfect verbs in jussive moods and two interrogative particles are discussed. The rules of the jussive particles whenever they precede any imperfect verb are deeply explained. Examples were given to aid your comprehension. The interrogative particles were also treated in this unit. You can now put the Arabic sound imperfect verbs in the jussive mood. #### 1.0 INTRODUCTION

You are welcome to the last unit of the last module. In the unit, you will be taught the vocative in Arabic language. You will also be introduced to Gerund in Arabic grammar. In this unit, you will learn construction of nominal, verbal and interrogative sentences. After the completion of this unit, you will be better positioned in Arabic grammar provided you read your course material very well and you are satisfied with your self assessment exercises. You will not have the problem with writing good sentences in Arabiclanguage.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

At the end of this unit, you should be able to:

- identify the vocative in Arabic grammar
- describe gerund and mention some of its patterns
- express yourself in complete nominal and verbal sentences
- convert nominal and verbal sentences to interrogative sentences.

3.0 MAIN CONTENT

3.1 The Vocative (المنادى)

In the Arabic language, calls or invocations are made by the use of interjection tool 'L' O! This is termed in Arabic grammar while 'the vocative case' is its English equivalent. Vocative is nominative in mood i.e. the invoked noun takes the dammah vowel. Also nunation .i.e. double vowel is dropped as a rule in the invoked name. Also, when you call, the definite article 'al' 'L' will be dropped as a rule in the usage of vocative e.g. 'L' oh boy!

Look at the following examples, you will notice that one of the last vowels is lost and there is no definite article in the sentence.

Oh man	يَا رَجَلُ
Oh student	بًا طَالِبُ
Oh girl	يَا بِنْتُ
Oh Adam	يَا آدَمُ
Oh Ahmad	يَا أَحْمَدُ

This is how vocative goes about in Arabic. Mind you, if the name you are putting in the vocative case or calling, in other words, is governed by a genitive rule or is in the possessive mood, it will be put in thhe accusative; this means that the word rabun, nās lord of people رَبُّ النَّاس See more examples of this.

Oh the servant of Allah, يَا عَبْدَ اللهِ Oh the command of the faithful, يَا أُمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِين

The vocative interjection can also be ayuhā, 'أيها' 'oh'. it is the same meaning with yah' but rather it is a rhetorical and pompous way of introducing the vocative. If it is a female we use' أينها'. For example:

 Oh man:
 أَيُهَا الرَّجُلُ

 Oh lady:
 أَيْتُهَا الْمَرْأَةُ

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 1

Discuss the vocative in Arabic language. Give its various tools and examples.

3.2 The Gerund or Verbal Noun (الْمُصنْدَرُ

There are divergent opinions as to which one is the source between verb and gerund among the Arabic grammarians. While some say the Gerund is source of verb, others say the verb is source of gerund. Whatever be the case the gerund in Arabic grammar takes different patterns and consists of a lot of paradigms. Therefore, we would just give you here the basic paradigms you need for now. As you are furthering your reading in Arabic you will continue to know more.

The table below shows the gerund of some verbs and their pattern.

Doing	فعل
Opening	فَدُحٌ
Hearing	سُمْعُ
Praising	حَمْدُ
Breaking	ا گسْر ٌ
Beating	ۻؘۯۨڹ
Assistance	نَصْرُ
Understanding	فَهُمُ
Doing	ِ فَعُولٌ
Falling	سُکُوتٌ
Sitting	جُلُوسٌ *
Exist	ڂؙۯؙۅڿٞ
Entrance	دُ خُ ولٌ
Returning	رُجُوعٌ
Standing	وُ قُوفٌ
Doing	فَعَلْ
Gladness	فَرَحٌ
Delight	طرَبٌ
Arrogance	بَطْرٌ
Traveling	سَفَرٌ

e.g فَعُولَة difficulty. Some are عَعَالَة e.g honour, كَرَامَة Knowledge of the gerund depends on extensive reading of Arabic books and dictionaries. You should follow the advice we gave to you earlier.

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 2

What is the English equivalent of the word Gerund in Arabic? Which one is the source between gerund and verb? How many patterns has gerund? Mention ten gerunds with examples.

3.3 A Complete Sentence الْجُمْلَة الْمُفِيدَة

A complete sentence in Arabic grammar is a word or group of words which express a complete idea as in English with which you are assumed to be familiar or any other language for that matter. There are different types of complete sentences. We shall introduce the nominal and verbal sentences to you here.

3.3.1 Nominal Sentence الْجُمْلة الْإِسْمِيَّة

Nominal sentence in Arabic language is a sentence that begins with a noun. e.g. al-waladu qāimun, the boy is standing الوَلَدُ قَائِم . You should remember this easily as we have been taught the subject and predicate in Module One. If you revise unit five of module one very well, that means that you have gotten the concept of nominal sentences in Arabic. That not withstanding the examples below can still flourish and refresh your knowledge.

The teacher is sitting in the classroom
The woman went to the market
The two male Muslims are going
The hardworking men are successful
The lesson is clear
Adam is present

المُعَلِّمُ جَالِسٌ فِي الفَصلْ الْمُعَلِّمُ جَالِسٌ فِي الفَصلْ الْمُرْأَةُ ذَهَبَتْ إلى السُّوق المُسْلِمَان ذَاهِبَان ناجحون المجتهدون الدَّرْسُ وَاضِح الدَّرْسُ وَاضِح آدَمُ حَاضِر

3.3.2 Verbal Sentence (al-jumlatu al-fi'liyat) الْجُمُلَةُ الْفِعْلِيَّةُ

This is a sentence that begins with verb. Examples are the following below.

I am going to the school

Zaydu stood up

The female teacher went to the class

الْفَصْلُ

Fatimah understood the lesson

The male teacher is writing on the board

The male to the school

The male teacher is writing on the board

The male teacher is writing on the board

Thus as you could have seen from the above examples, a nominal sentence is a sentence which begins with noun while a verbal sentence is the sentence started with a verb

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 3

Define الْجُمُلَة الْإِسْمِيَّة. Give five examples to illustrate what you say. Define الْجُمُلَةُ الْفِعْلِيَّة . Give five examples to illustrate what you say.

3.3.3 Changing Nominal and Verbal Sentences to Interrogative Sentences

An interrogative sentence is a sentence which asks a question as you have leant earlier on in the last unit. Also, the same interrogative particles and method of their application which you learnt there and how to apply them are required here again. Changing a nominal or verbal sentence to an interrogative one is however to be focused here. Hence we submit that in interrogative sentence, the two particles of interrogation can prefix either nominal or verbal sentence. Examples with sentences referring to:

The masculine gender:

(Nominal Sentences	-	Muhammad is present
(Interrogative)	هَلْ مُحَمَّدٌ حَاضِرٌ ؟	Is Muhammad present?
(Verbal Satement)	قَامَ زَيْد	Zayd stood up
(Interrogative)	هَلْ قَامَ زَيْدٌ؟	Did Zayd stand up?

The feminine gender:

(Nominal Sentence)	فاطِمَة حَاضِرَة	Fatimah is present
(Interrogative)	هَلْ فَاطِمَة حَاضِرَة؟	Is Fatimah present?
(Verbal Statement)	قَامَتْ زَيْنَب	Zaynab stood up
(Interrogative)	هَلْ قَامَت زَينَب	Did Zaynab stand up?

SELF ASSESSMENT EXERCISE 4

Write five nominal and five verbal sentences each; then convert them to Interrogative sentences.

4.0 CONCLUSION (ألإسْتِنتَاجُ)

On al-Maşdar (the Gerund or Verbal Noun), there are divergent opinions among the Arabic grammarians as to which one is the source between verb and gerund. The gerund in Arabic grammar takes different patterns and consists of a lot of paradigms.

In Arabic Grammar, a complete sentence. اَلْجُمُلُهُ الْمُفِيدَة could either be Nominal Sentence الْجُمُلُهُ الْإِسَامِيَّة beginning with a noun or Verbal Sentence الْجُمُلُهُ الْفِعْلِيَّة beginning with a verb. Both can be converted to interrogative statement with the prefixing of the interrogative particles.
